We're holding our 2007 reunion in the Pitch Diner at the Nottingham Forest Football stadium offering stunning views over the Trent. We'll have the place to ourselves, and we'll lay it out attractively to suit as many as want to come, with plenty of space for chatting and moving around among the other guests.

The Reunion welcomes anyone, staff or scholars, who attended the Grammar School from 1953 to 1973, and their guests. As bookings come in, check our website to see who's coming, by name and by school start years: if you don't see your friends there send a message to the website to encourage them or, better still, give them a bell.

This reunion is organised by the Grammar School Society, and we hope you'll give it your early support to make it a success.
